LRMM APPOINTS TWO PARTNERS WITHIN ITS INSURANCE GROUP

Montreal, October 18, 2019 – Lapointe Rosenstein Marchand Melançon is delighted to announce the promotion of two of its attorneys to partners: M<sup>tres</sup> Julia De Rose and Peter Moraitis.

Over the years, these two dynamic and qualified attorneys have developed a specialized expertise in insurance law.

M<sup>tre</sup> Julia De Rose

Before her call to the Quebec Bar in 2009, Julia articulated at LRMM. Since then, she has developed her practice in the fields of civil liability, insurance law, and professional liability. In that capacity she pleads before all courts in Quebec.

Her career has led her to lecture and write articles on various current topics related to the insurance sector.

Julia values professional commitment. Indeed, she is responsible for the Legislation Committee of the Montreal Association of Insurance Women (MAIW) and sits on the Executive Committee of the Insurance and Civil Litigation Section of the Canadian Bar Association, Quebec Branch. She also contributes to the firm's future as a member of the Recruitment Committee and as an articling supervisor.

M<sup>tre</sup> Peter Moraitis

Called to the Bar in 2010, Peter's practice focuses primarily on the areas of insurance and liability. More specifically, Peter frequently represents insurers and their policyholders in major claims, having developed extensive expertise in the area of insurance fraud. Combining his passions for sport and law, he has developed a wide-ranging experience in the field of sports law, particularly in the representation of sports federations and their administrators. Strongly involved in the legal and sporting communities, Peter sits on the Quebec Bar's Professional Training Committee and the Montreal Bar's Contests Committee, in addition to chairing Hockey Québec's Provincial Officiating Committee and teaching civil procedure at the Quebec Bar School.

"Their skills are valuable assets to the know-how and depth of our team. Their talent and desire to exceed our clients' expectations will strengthen our presence in an industry in which we are recognized," said Francis C. Meagher, partner and member of the firm's Executive Committee.
