Charles Leibovich and Michel Servant join our firm as partners

Montreal, February 11, 2020 – We are pleased to announce the expansion of the LRMM team with the arrival of M^{re} Charles Leibovich, tax attorney, and M^{re} Michel Servant, business attorney, as partners.

M^{re} Charles Leibovich

Charles was called to the Quebec Bar in 1989. He has a broad expertise in the estate planning, corporate reorganization, tax disputes and litigation, both in the area of sales tax and income tax. Over the course of his career, he has advised numerous clients on tax planning and corporate reorganization. He is the author and co-author of various articles on taxation and is regularly solicited to give conferences. He has been interviewed on multiple occasions on a variety of tax-related topics.

M^{re} Michel Servant

Michel has 25 years of experience in business law, specialising primarily in the areas of corporate, commercial, and securities law, with an emphasis on mergers and acquisitions and corporate finance. Michel has broad experience in cross-border transactions, public and private financings, take-over bids, acquisitions and sales of public and private companies, and in drafting various commercial agreements. Michel has been involved in several significant transactions over the years. He is viewed by clients as being very practical and valued for his availability and responsiveness.

“We are delighted to welcome such experienced lawyers to our team,” comments M^{re} Christopher Deehy partner and member of the firm's Executive Committee. Their skills and expertise align perfectly with our legal practice and bring new depth to our team.
