Gerald Stotland joins our firm as partner

Montreal, July 12, 2021 – We are pleased to announce that M^{re} Gerald Stotland, a leading practitioner in the fields of family law and litigation, has joined our firm as a partner.

A certified mediator, Gerald often acts as legal advisor to other attorneys and accountants to resolve family law issues related to both individual and business financial planning.

Gerald has played a significant role in the improvement of the administration of justice. His contribution as a member of the board and chair of various committees of the Bar of Montreal and the Bar of Quebec attest to his dedication to the profession. Indeed, he has frequently lectured at various events organized by various bars and legal associations in Quebec, Canada and abroad.

Throughout his career, he has authored numerous articles and his strategic and litigation skills have been recognized internationally by his peers, as well as by the Quebec judiciary, particularly in high-profile cases.

"We are proud to welcome this prominent and talented attorney to our team. His vast experience and in-depth knowledge of these fields will assist in building a strong and complementary group of talented practitioners in this field which will add to our range of services," according to M^{re} Bruno Floriani, partner and member of the firm's Executive Committee.
